Featuring an amazing pop-up Santa's cottage with built-in 3-D windows to peek through.

One Christmas morning, Sam wakes up to find that Santa has brought him just what he asked for. But that night he can't help but wonder: Does anyone ever give Santa a gift? After saving up all year to buy Santa the perfect present, Sam still can't decide what the jolly old fellow might want. Something to wear? Something to eat? Or maybe some special help on Christmas Eve? Sprinkled with pop-ups, this holiday tale leads up to a final surprise: an amazing rendition of Santa's cottage, with 3-D windows revealing the bustling activity inside.
