This exciting new board game lets players share the adventures and perils of Christian as he sets out on the journey of his life. On the road he meets terrifying monsters, horrible giants, a cruel judge, and raging lions. But Christian also makes good friends and, at last, reaches his journey's end--the Celestial City. Players can follow Christian's story not only through the game, but also in the eighty-page storybook included to help children learn about this John Bunyan classic.
