Deliciously interesting, tasty morsels of cultural history combined with luscious photographs will leave readers hungry for more. "Every kind of food has its story." Acclaimed photographer Ken Robbins guides us through the history, mythology, and literary significance of food. Fascinating factsNit was an apple that started the Trojan War; oranges used to be so expensive that only the rich could afford them--and stunning photographs make "Food for Thought" a tasty read that will have everyone looking at their plates in a new way.
