"Pep Talks, Warnings and Screeds" is a gift book of writing advice suitable for writers at secondary school level and up. Writers will gain an understanding of writing and submission basics as well as more nuanced lessons and inspiration - from a voice that is humorous and unforgettable, accompanied by whimsical illustrations. "Pep Talks" and "Warnings" are humorous bite-sized anecdotes, observations, and exercises (that lend themselves well to illustration), while the "Screeds" section includes longer essays, some of which Singleton has published in the Oxford American's "Writing on Writing" section.
