From the pages of "The Onion", and the wry mind of cartoonist Shannon Wheeler comes the year's funniest - and most charmingly packaged - collection of new comics you'll see this year. For more than ten years Wheeler has cultivated a distinctly pointed and playful sense of humour in the pages of his independent comics, "Too Much Coffee Man" and "How to Be Happy". "Postage Stamp Funnies" frames his wit with even more focus, as each cartoon delivers its punch in a single postage stamp-sized panel.
