In the newest adventure in the Lucky Foot Stable series, epic friends Mary and Jody are given an incredible opportunity when a movie crew descends on the McMurray Dairy

Farm to film a movie. The girls are soon rushing around trying to show the film people that Lady, Gypsy, and Star are the best looking, most well-behaved horses around, perfect for any movie needs. But there is more at stake than the horses' future fame to think about. If the movie shoot doesn't go well, the McMurrays might lose the farm to a bank. So it's up to the girls and their ponies to make it work for everyone, though it looks like the girls might get more than they bargained for-like a chance to become famous
