How high a price would you pay to belong? Book Three in the Midnight Trilogy. Tara Sellers has an identity problem. Having grown up in countless foster homes, she scratches out a living as a paparazzi photographer. Until she discovers shes the illegitimate daughter of one of the richest men in the world. Suddenly, everything she thought she knew about herself is a lie. Dr. Perry Chase has a proximity problem. His friendship with the Remingtons has long defined him, but when they ask him to help steer their newfound sister to seeing things their way, he cant let himself get too close to his very attractive prey. But he cant seem to make himself get far enough away, either. By day, they bicker, but by night their private lessons turn to passion. Unclear who she is and who she wants to be, Tara must decide how much shes willing to give up for the chance to have a real family of her own.
