"William Heyen's music and meditations continue to amaze. I've now read and absorbed all the poems of "A Poetics of Hiroshima." I am not ready to write anything about them, except to express my awe." -Cynthia Ozick"A remarkable poet in whom the 'visionary' and the unblinkingly 'historical' are dramatically meshed. He writes with the wild, radiant audacity of the visionary; yet his eye and ear are sharp, unsparing." -Joyce Carol OatesThe author of eighteen books of poetry, William Heyen has been awarded Fulbright, NEA, American Academy of Arts and Letters, and Guggenheim fellowships and prizes. His "Shoah Train "was a National Book Award finalist.
