"Where would we be without Roz Chast? Chast's magnificent career-spanning collection highlights her position as master of the deep interior, of the obsessions, the baseless fears and the weird proverbs to which we cling in our desperation not to leave the house."-- Susan Salter Reynolds, "Los Angeles" "Times" This wonderfully comprehensive collection spanning nearly three decades and arranged chronologically--and drawn from the pages of magazines including "Scientific American" and "Redbook" as well as "The New Yorker"--brings together, for the first time, the very best of Roz Chast, whom "O Magazine" called "the wryest pen since Dorothy Parker's."
