National Book Award winning poet/essayist/translator Clayton Eshleman has written well over 30 books and has had hundreds of articles/essays/poems published throughout the world in the 40 years he has been writing. His work is included in many anthologies and his poetry has been translated into a number of other languages. This is the first comprehensive anthology published looking at the whole of his body of work: from translations to poetry to essays and prose poems. Winner of many major awards, including his second Landon Translation Award this year for his translation of Cesar Vallejo: The Complete Poems, Black Widow Press is pleased to bring to fruition this extensive overview of his work.
