In association with The Metropolitan Museum of Art "Kids will discover their inner artist with this interactive book." Children will want to make their own masterpieces time and again in this imaginative workbook featuring the art of Vincent van Gogh. Full of biographical details from Van Gogh's life, as well as pastels and plenty of exercises allowing kids to make their own new creations, this kit makes learning about an artist fun in an innovative way. Plus, perforated pages let kids tear out and display their artwork. Perfect for budding artists and great for a classroom art library to show children that art is as fun as it is culturally enriching, this kit will instill a new appreciation for art and the work of Van Gogh.
