This book includes a captivating assortment of word and anagram puzzles, riddles, quizzes, matchstick challenges, coin puzzles, brain twisters, visual challenges, math posers and cut-out puzzles - complete with all-new illustrations inspired by the originals. Make sure you have a flashlight and some extra pencils handy, because it will keep the whole family amused, amazed, and entertained far into the night. Big and Little Climber - A big mountain climber and a little mountain climber stood on a cliff. The little mountain climber was the big mountain climber's son, but the big mountain climber wasn't the little mountain climber's father. How is this possible?
