Ana Dominguez was happy in San Jose, but everything changed when her dad moved the family to Half Moon Bay, California, to open a law practice. Her parents think she's settling into her new school nicely, but she has them fooled. Riley, the most popular girl in school, has picked Ana as enemy number one, and Tyler, Ana's crush, doesn't even know Ana exists. When Ana ends up in detention with Riley, her life suddenly changes. When Ana, Riley, Christine and Zoe share their essays on 'The Day My Life Changed,' it turns out they have more in common than they ever would have imagined. Now as Ana lives out her faith, she and Zoe are determined to befriend Riley and Christine. But the drama of high school life has only just begun.

It's a very interesting juvenile fiction featuring four teenage girls, Ana, Reily, Christine and Zoe. They actually had nothing in common except that they only shared their similar life experience, that they were all miracle girls favored by the God. They a...
