

The Chadwick Family Papers

This is a Bownes Book. It is a book of virtuoso art scholarship written by Jimbo Blachly & Lytle Shaw. It collects the first four years of research into the Chadwicks, a family of connoisseurs, dandies, and amateur historians. Entitled The Chadwick Family Papers, it reproduces newly found documents on the family and their collections. It is published with the latest technology by The Bownes Library, New York and Pittsburgh.

In 2004 the duo Jimbo Blachly and Lytle Shaw began to do installations and performances in which they pretended to be the editors of the papers of the Chadwicks, a mysterious family of connoisseurs, dandies, and amateur historians. The plausible and the fabricated switch cushioned seats as the editors attempt to unravel the byzantine history of the Chadwick dynasty. This book includes numerous photographs of the Blachly-Shaw assault on the art world, along with a judicious selection of the Chadwick papers now known to be extant.
