Nearly 500 pages of off-the-wall adventure are collected in this value-priced volume!

Created in the early 1980s, The Ambush Bug recently made a comeback in the pages of 52 and in his new comic book series. Deluded, confused and just plain crazy, Irwin Schwab claimed have gained his powers from a costume sent to Earth from a distant planet. He embarked on his own super-heroic career, to the annoyance of Superman, Batman, Wonder Woman and every other hero he happened to encounter.

This new collection includes Ambush Bug's secret origin, in a story called “We Thought Him Up,” and more insanity.
