The adventures of Rip Squeak and his friends continue. It all happens one morning when Euripides the frog is reading his friends a tale of pirates and they discover a map which leads Rip the mouse, his little sister, Jesse and her doll, Bunny, Euripides the frog, and Abbey the cat in search of treasure. What they discover is that a "treasure" can have many meanings. This first edition of this book was awarded an a Finalist Award for Children's Picture Books (7 and over) in 2003 by the Independent Publisher Book Awards (IPPY.).
