Prom is the last place you'd expect to find feisty freshman Suzi Clue. She's not part of the A-list and would much rather be playing the drums. But if there's one thing she can't resist, it's a mystery, and Mountain High's Prom Queen Curse totally fits the bill. Spider attacks, overzealous tanning beds, and killer orcas have the candidates freaking, but Suzi knows the curse can't be real. But in order to prove it, she has to do the unthinkable . . . run for prom queen! Fresh, funny, and totally over the top, here's a stylish mystery from debut author Michelle Kehm
