"He is my Master" follows the day-to-day life of Yoshitaka, a sex-obsessed fourteen year old with a major superiority complex and a uniform fetish to boot. After his parents die in an accident, Yoshitaka inherits the family fortune - and the family estate. Deciding that the musty old place needs some livening up, he fires the staff, intending to replace them with attractive, live-in maids. His dreams more than come true when three sexy girls - along with their pet alligator, Pochi - lay claim to the job. "He is my Master" is a popular ongoing manga in Japan. It is also a popular anime that aired on Japanese TV in 2005.
