The August 8, 2005, issue of the "Weekly Standard" called "The" "New York Sun" crosswords the best in America, beating out "The New York Times" in a head-to-head competition. What makes them the greatest? They're carefully edited so those obscure words that nobody actually uses are out, and solving pleasure is in, thanks to tricky clues and witty puns. Most of the puzzles have clever and original themes that add to the fun. Plus, solvers will enjoy the wide range of difficulty--indicated by the number of stars on top.
