This is a collection of the best American editorial/political cartoons of the year. What a year 2008 was! Oil prices skyrocketed, house prices plummeted and the race for the White House between McCain and Obama kept everyone on their toes. Intelligent, entertaining, and sometimes controversial, this volume presents readers with a collection of the best and most thought-provoking editorial cartoons culled from US newspapers and journals of the past year. Featuring 450 cartoons, including a number of international award-winning works, this volume is certain to stir your emotions and opinions.
