From the bestselling author of "Gettin' Old Ain't for Wimps" (more than 225,000 copies sold) comes this heartwarming look at grandparenting. More than 80 delightful stories based on real-life experiences express the joys of interacting with grandchildren and the funny misunderstandings that occur between generations. As Karen, a grandmother to 14, says, "Grandkids keep us youthful, humble, and wide-awake! They also keep us praying. We read books and ride bikes together, play Ring Around the Rosy, cheer from the bleachers at their sporting events, and tear-up at the sight of them in their first prom dress or tux. What would our lives be like without sticky kisses, heavenly hugs, and hand-printed birthday notes?" Each two to three-page story ends with an encouraging Scripture verse and a brief prayer, thanking God for the gift of these young people who help us live, love, and laugh in ways we never imagined.
