"Fort Red Border"-the title itself an anagram for the name of this remarkable collection's imaginary beloved-shows how language can be pleated, unfolded, and creased all over again into an endless origami of Eros. . . . By turns clowning, worshipful, heartbroken, and Faulknerian, these lyrics transport the reader to a familiar place made utterly strange."-Srikanth ReddyKiki Petrosino earned graduate degrees from both the University of Chicago and the Iowa Writers' Workshop. Her poem, "You Have Made a Career of Not Listening," was featured in the anthology "Best New Poets 2006." She lives in Iowa City.
