Painting 10 masters of the art world in the context of their times, these engaging references examine the political, religious, and social events that shaped the lives and works of history's most celebrated artists. Insightful text and original color paintings provide explanation and analysis of a multitude of masterpieces for young art aficionados to enjoy. Profiling French master Edgar Degas, this biography reveals the painter's attention to detail through careful observation, explains the influence of photography on his works, and offers critiques of his creations--including the beloved ballet dancers he both sculpted in bronze and painted in oils.
