This engaging new title puts you in the director's chair as you stage your own plays with a delightful collection of farmyard puppets. From the pink pig with a curly tail to the colorful rooster with his array of feathers, these puppets will delight creative young minds. This complete kit comes with all the pieces needed to make six paper puppets, including colorful paper bags, button noses, and googly eyes that bring these characters to life. The easy-to-follow instructions make this activity perfect for little hands. Three original scripts are included, as well as a foldout stage with scenery to perform shows for family and friends. Get out your director’s chair and assemble your cast…the show is about to go on!
