The best of more than 50,000 job boards and career sites available on the internet--organized by career field, industry, and geographic focus--is contained in this handy reference for job seekers and recruiters. Topics include how many people come to each site per month, the number of resumes found in each database, the cost to search resumes and post a job, how many jobs are posted on each site, the salary ranges of these jobs, which sites store resumes in their databases, and whether or not the site offers automatic notification of a job-resume match. With full-page profiles of 350 of the best of today's internet employment sites, this is a must-have resource for making smart decisions about where to invest time and effort online.
