Inspired by the groundbreaking work of Morton Deutsch, a pioneer in applied social psychology. The contributors—all authorities in their fields and former students or colleagues of Deutsch—include leading thinkers from schools and departments of sociology, psychology, education, and management, with expertise ranging from labor relations to school-based conflict resolution to cooperative education programs and business policy. Each chapter focuses on one of the three areas of Deutsch's work—conflict, cooperation, and justice—with a commentary by Deutsch himself concluding each section. This volume is both a tribute to the work of Deutsch and a cross-disciplinary contribution to theory and practice in conflict, cooperation, and justice—with applications that cut across business, community, political, and other social groups.
