Since its introduction more than fifteen years ago, Knock at a Star has established itself as a classic anthology of poetry for children. X. J. and Dorothy Kennedy engaged the reader in a conversation about how and why poetry works. Now the Kennedys have taken a new look at the original anthology and have freshened it by adding some poems, deleting others, and making further comments. With new and evocative line drawings by Karen Lee Baker, the revised Knock at a Star will enrich and enchant a new generation of poetry lovers.
