Sophie Merdinger's little brother died of leukemia two years ago, and she finds her memories of him fading. She can't forgive her father who had an affair while Erhart was dying, and she doesn't know how to deal with boys who used to be her friends but are now asking her out. Enter Francis. With a dead mother, a teardrop tattooed on his face and a curiosity that is almost nosy, he has a lot to teach her about losing someone and saving memories. And he wants to be her friend. Included only in Young Adult 10. This title is an Accelerated Reader(R) Title
