When Celia Williams is found dead, having burned herself in a lurid act of suicide, her fianc Lloyd Denman doesn't seem to be able to go on with his own life, haunted by Celia and their past together. As Lloyd struggles to deal with this tragic event he learns about a bizarre accident in the California's desert where a busload of people have burned to death. Police speculate that this was an act of a suicide pact, but as Lloyd's investigation reveals connections between the two events, he begins to learn what is at the root of these horrific suicides. When he discovers a link to Nazi Germany, Llyod becomes involved in something that may be beyond his world. But once he has begun can he escape?
