Virginia's history and natural beauty are overwhelming as can be the number of places to camp. The new edition of The Best in Tent Camping: Virginia will help readers find a quiet, scenic campsite from the coastal plains to the mountain ranges. Bull Run Regional Park in the northern part of the state is a must for Civil War enthusiasts. Enjoy the beauty of the Blue Ridge Mountains at Peaks of Otter Campground. Marvel at fall foliage while camping in Hungry Mother State Park. Author Randy Porter guides readers not only to the region's best campsites, but also to recreational and historical attractions nearby.
