Jane Urquhart has published three books of poetry, a collection of short stories and five best-selling novels. Her fiction has won many honours including Canada's 1997 Governor General's Award, and France's prestigious Prix du Meilleur Livre Etranger. She lives in Ontario, Canada. The essays in this book investigate Urquhart's interweaving of historical events, myth, folk tales, journeys and landscape with her acute perceptions of memory and transformation. The many critical voices in this collection invite readers to consider Urquhart's very special vision of the world, one made up of migrations, dreams, spiritual quests and prophecy.
