In this literary gem Vigen Guroian chronicles not merely the changing seasons but the course of his own life as he and his family move from Maryland to a new home near the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia. Leaving the old garden behind and cultivating another garden become an emblem of our journey through life, marked as it is by both bitter losses and sweet new blessings.

While deeply personal, "The Fragrance of God" vividly unfolds the great biblical themes of the grandeur of God's creation, the senses as paths to experiencing God, and the garden as a place of birth, death, and renewal.

Laced throughout with quotations from Guroian's beloved church fathers and replete with theological reflection, "The Fragrance of God" will lead readers down a path of deeper insight into the creation and the Creator.
