Throw down the gauntlet! Challenge the master! This new twist for trivia lovers will provide hours of fun while learning even more fascinating facts. A well-known piece of trivia is presented, and then followed with a question that would arise from the fact. If you really are the master, you won't turn the page until you try to answer it yourself. Impress your friends and stump them with the "One-Up Trivia". A perfect gift for those who love the trivial information that accrues in our lives, this book is handy enough to bring to parties, on holiday or anywhere you want to stump someone into silence!
