For 16 years, Harry Spiller worked as a deputy sheriff, investigator, and sheriff in a place where murder isn't suppose to happen?Southern Illinois. Investigating murder cases mainly in Williamson County and assisting in other counties. He learned the hard reality that murder is all around us. It is swift for the victim and can happen to anyone, anywhere at anytime. It doesn't matter if you live in a big city or a small county, with brick-front towns, small farms, white church houses, lakes and ponds, the Shawnee National Forest, and the muddy rivers. All too often, victims fall prey in places that we think are safe to raise our families, places where we take walks on hot summer nights, where our children play in the park without concern, where we fish in the local pond hoping to land the big one, and where we leave our doors unlocked at night. In this book, Murders In The Heartland, Book 2 there are 10 case files.
