The Gift of Inspiration Series. Incredible insights and inspiring quotations from some of the most creative and accomplished people of our times. A tribute to innovators, artists, inventors and breakthrough thinkers everywhere. A book that will challenge, entertain and inspire every person in your company or community to raise the ceilings on their expectations. The message is powerful: The best way to predict the future is to create it. Great companies do not resist innovation, they symbolize it. To succeed, always have your next idea waiting in the wings. It's a lot more fun to make history than to polish the past.
