The best gift for the passionate angler, "Trout of North America" presents a year of extraordinary paintings from celebrated nature artist Joseph R. Tomelleri. The portraits are true to life in color and even in the smallest details, capturing each fish's elegance and distinctive beauty. The strikingly patterned McCloud River Redband. A silvery Coho Salmon. Accompanying each illustration is detailed text about the featured trout, including natural history, color range map, and hatch charts of mayflies and caddis flies.
