The sequel and concluding novel of the story begun in THE FALLEN. Dagon takes his characters on an exhilarating ride generously filled with humor, excitement, personal exploration and surprising wisdom. For three months, Nick, Darren and their friends have been living it up on the generosity of their friend, the fallen angel, Marbas. But another ancient and powerful demon has been chasing Marbas. With compassion for his characters, Joshua Dagon takes an unflinching look at the perils of blind faith, prejudice and arrogance
