There's a Princess inside every little girl. Who ever heard of a Princess without a scepter? Certainly not Gigi, God's Little Princess. Dressing up and wearing a tiara is fine, but a scepter is essential for punctuating royal pronouncements and deigning to admit commoners into one's presence (you know, like cats and boys). Scepter lights up with a royal sound effect when waved by a princess. TOYS ARE NON-RETURNABLE. AA Batteries not included.
