By introducing the magic of 'points of connection' - looking great by echoing your own innate characteristics in the clothes you wear - fashion professional Nancy Nix-Rice offers dozens of real-life examples that demonstrate how repeating ones colour values, contrast level, body outline, and facial structure can give a desirable polished look. Walking viewers through real-life wardrobe transformations, young professionals and senior managers alike will benefit from this valuable DVD that offers shopping guidance for perfect new additions, co-ordinating an array of accessories, and matching old clothes with new styles to create outfits for every lifestyle situation. Approximate running time: 100 minutes.
