The 'I-See' series returns with your essential guide to the magic of Christmas, replete with lights, tinsel and baubles. Enjoy the festive season by spotting unique gifts, Christmas paraphernalia and all manner of shiny decorations. Includes sections on Xmas media campaigns -- police drink-driving awareness, the Sunday supplements' 'What to Wear at the Christmas Party' and of course chain-retailer signs proclaiming "Only 53 Shopping Days Until Xmas!!!!" Delight in observing frenzied shoppers buying last-minute gifts, artificial trees adorned with tacky christmas decorations, and eccentric Brits up and down the country "expressing themselves" by decorating their houses with miles of twinkling lights, fake plastic Santas and wire-framed reindeer. You can now spread the festive cheer all around with 'I-See...Xmas', an irreverent look at the most magical time of year. www.iseemodernbritain.com
