When Larry Dahl's wife dies a tragic death due in part to a case he was working on he flees the FBI for rural Virginia, a last chance to stay in law enforcement. The Chief of Police in small town Duper's Fork, Larry lives a quiet life for 3 years. When Army Intelligence shows up to investigate files from the old WW2 POW camp in town, Larry's old skills return to the forefront. Some secrets of small town America aren't meant to be found out. Especially when they may lead to the highest levels of government..
