The Storybook has been designed to assist in pursuing the art of storytelling. The "story-starters" are about everyday circumstances as well as special events. Many happy hours can be spent recounting thoughts, experiences and family history. Memories take on a new and exciting meaning when shared with loved ones. This is the Great Novel - the story of You. The Storybook is meant to be adjusted to each individual and their family, making it a portrait of a specific group of people and the ones they love. This book is a gift for the future, the start of a tradition, a legacy to the generations to come.
