Journey to Freedom "RM" explores events that have shaped our nation and African Americans who have inspired the world. From Dr. Charles Drew to The Underground Railroad our 12 new titles examine the African American experience in history and today. African Americans have played vital roles in the shaping of American history. The Child's World "RM" is committed to educating and informing children about the achievements and contributions of America's noted African American leaders, inventors, scientists, entrepreneurs, entertainers, and sports figures. Our Journey to Freedom "RM" series pays tribute to these individuals and the events that have shaped our lives.
