These little conundrums combine wordplay and logic as never before and are sure to entice the millions of dedicated sudoku solvers and BoGGLE board game fans. Here's how to play this super puzzle matchup: First, find the answers to the clues. Then, put them into the grid BoGGLE-style but without using any vowels. And, the final sudoku-style twist: no letter may be repeated in any row, column, or jigsaw shape. This is a really unique solving experience for the word lover in all of us.
