With or Without Make-Up is a collection of my poems based on different, challenging experiences and transitions in my life. I have a different variety of poems based on love, life's issues, friendship, relationships, miscellaneous subjects, and also getting to know myself all over again. My poems are an inspiration for me when I read them over again. They uplift my spirit, and they encourage me to want to do better things with my life. Basically, all of my poems have an uplifting message at the end, and they are inspirational as well.
