Every night, Belinda and her little brother Peter, are told a story by Chef Michael, their father. One night, while asleep, they are whisked off by three winged kitchen mice---Marjoram, Basil and Rosemary--- to the land of Enchanted Thyme. There, the Fricasse Fairy has cast a dark spell. Queen Topstead of Enchanted Thyme is under the curse of eternal hunger---Belinda and Peter (and lots of others) have fifteen adventures making fifteen different meals trying to sate the Queen's hunger. This may be the first fairy tale adventure book for children, WITH RECIPES, ever published. It is the first in what promises to be many, many more.
