"Doing and Writing Action Research" provides a clear, comprehensive and user-friendly guide to the practical aspects of carrying out action research. Written with practitioners involved in workplace-based professional development programmes, as well as those on research training courses, in mind, this book covers all the core issues, with guidance on how to: present findings; produce a research report that can inform policy; demonstrate the quality of one's research; and, be critical and write theoretically. The book contains many worked examples of action research projects, to help illustrate the guidance on producing successful written accounts. "Doing and Writing Action Research" is an essential text for anyone working with action research, providing vital guidance on how this type of work is assessed, enabling the reader to get the best results from their project work.
