Colors opens the locker room door and offers pro football fans a revealing look at what their favorite NFL team has worn over the years. These stories are colorfully illustrated and written by current and former NFL executives, sportswriters, and broadcasters who have covered the game for decades. From the leather helmets and crusty canvas pants of the Chicago Bears from the 1920's, to today's sleek spandex and electrifying lightning bolts of the San Diego Chargers, Colors takes you on an informative, historical and humorous look at NFL gridiron attire.
