It's spring in a small town in Georgia, and it is time for kids to play baseball. Chase and Charlize have been friends since birth, and now they are in the same class in first grade. They get a letter from school telling about baseball registration, and they are excited to play. Chase and Charlize find out their best friends Jarrett and Colby are on the same team as they are. All of the kids practice hard to get their favorite positions and to win their games. They find out how important it is to work as a team and to be good sports. Does Chase get to play pitcher like he wants? How does Charlize deal with everything being the only girl on the team? Do the Grizzlies win the championship game? Find out about everything these kids have to go through to get to the championship game.
