Frederick C. Klein and Mark Anderson have teamed up again to create a perfect vehicle to introduce young fans to the history and celebrated legends of the Georgia Bulldogs. Each letter of the alphabet is designated to at least one Bulldogs immortal, whose entry is characterized by a brilliant illustration, a witty poem, and a brief summary of his place in football history. The Georgia Bulldogs have certainly produced their share of legendary personalities. Its annals are studded with memorable names, such as Vince Dooley, Herschel Walker, Charlie Trippi, Fran Tarkenton, David Pollack, Larry Munson, Knowshon Moreno, and many others. The book is a wonderful tool for young readers and an ideal way for different generations of Georgia fans to share their passion.
